

Date: 13th December 2017

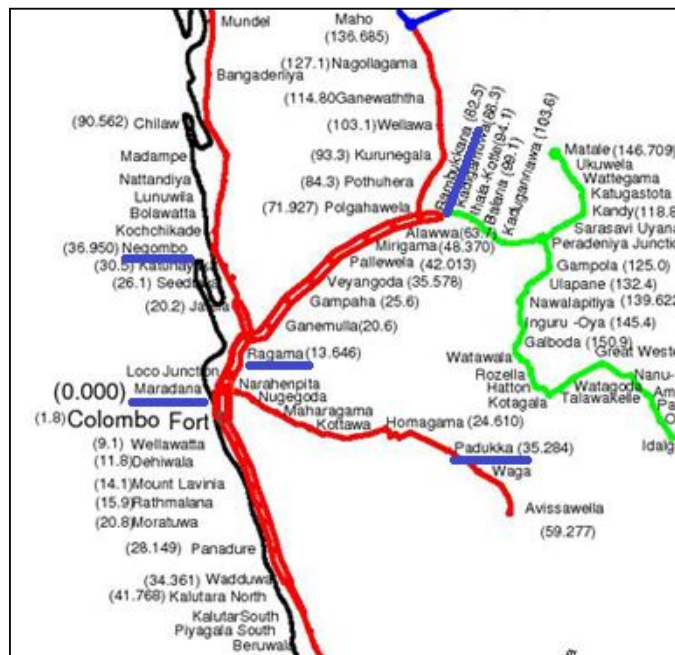

BARSYL wins ADB funded Colombo Suburban Railway Project in Sri Lanka

Balaji Railroad Systems Private Limited (IND) in Joint Venture with DOHWA Engineering Co., Ltd.(KOR) and Oriental Consultants Global Co., Ltd.(JPN) has been awarded, Consultancy for the feasibility study and detailed design of Colombo suburban railway project.

- Maradana to Padukka (Kelani Valley Line)
- Colombo to Rambukkana (Main Line)
- Colombo to Kaluthara South (Coastal Line)
- Ragama to Negambo (Puttlam Line)

Key tasks - Technical Feasibility, Economic and Financial Assessment, Poverty and Social Assessment, Land Acquisition and Resettlement Planning and Indigenous Peoples, Environmental and Climate Change Risk Assessment, Detailed Engineering Design, Cost Estimates and Bidding Documents, Procurement Assistance.

The Government of Sri Lanka intends to improve the railway system in the Western Province, including the Colombo Metropolitan Region (CMR). The main objective of the consultancy service is to prepare the railway project(s) ready for investment and implementation by completing feasibility studies, detailed engineering, safeguards planning documents, and bidding document. The project will improve the capacity and operating speed of the railway network in the CMR by modernizing and upgrading track, signalling and telecommunication infrastructure and potentially electrifying the suburban railway lines.

Rail Operations expert, Signal Engineer, Telecommunications Engineer, Environmental expert, Social Development & Resettlement expert, Procurement specialist, ICT specialist.

The scope of this proposed consultancy services would be to prepare feasibility study, detailed engineering design, safeguard planning documents, and bidding documents for four priority railway projects.

Balaji Railroad Systems P Limited (BARSYL) is a Hyderabad based, specialist rail consulting company with a pan India presence and global experience. Over the past 32 years BARSYL has worked for clients in over 15 countries apart from India. Some of the major clients in are Chennai Metro, Hyderabad Metro, DFCCIL, RVNL IRSDC, Adani Group, JSW Group and GE Locomotives.